STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT,
CIRCULATION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912,

of Fine Arts Journal, published monthly at Chicago, Ill., for April 1, 1918.

State of Illinois, County of Cook, ss.—Before me, a notary public in and for the state and county aforesaid, personally appeared F. J. Campbell, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the publisher of the Fine Arts Journal, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily paper, the circulation), etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor and business manager are:

Publisher—Frank James Campbell, Chicago, Ill.

Editor—Evelyn Marie Stuart, Chicago, Ill.

Managing Editor—Frank James Campbell, Chicago, Ill.

Business Manager—Frank James Campbell, Chicago, Ill.

2. That the owners are: (Give names and addresses of individual owners, or, if a corporation, give its name and the names and addresses of stockholders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of the total amount of stock)—Frank James Campbell, Chicago, Ill.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities are: (if there are none, so state.)—None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company, but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association or corporation has any interest, direct or indirect, in the said stock, bonds, or other securities as so stated by him.

F. J. CAMPBELL, Publisher.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 1st day of April, 1918.

WM. BISHOP GREGORY,

(Seal.)

Notary Public.

(My commission expires March, 1919.)

“THE FINE ARTS”

IS the handsomest and most complete Art Work published today. It consists of Four Volumes, bound in Full Limp Morocco; contains over three hundred monographs and over six hundred reproductions of the World's Masterpieces in Painting, Sculpture, Architecture and Decoration, among which are twelve exquisite photogravures valued at one dollar each.

THIS University Course of Art Instruction is the best work published on this subject today or ever offered to the public. It was edited by Dr. Edmund Buckley of the University of Chicago, assisted by Professor Hoppin, Yale University, Professor Churchill, Columbia University, and a faculty comprising twenty of the most eminent instructors and art critics in America.

The Luxembourg Museum and Its Treasures

THE great demand for reproductions of Luxembourg paintings has found its expression in Charles Louis Borgmeyer's beautiful book entitled: "THE LUXEMBOURG MUSEUM AND ITS TREASURES."

This contains over two hundred priceless engravings supplemented with two hundred and twenty-four pages of text and illustrations printed on the best of plate paper, bound in morocco leather, flexible covers, with gilt edges and embossing—in fact, it is an Art Work De Luxe. Size 8½x11½.

Written Under the Shadow of the War

This is not a work compiled second-handed, but every illustration and every description was procured in Paris by Mr. Borgmeyer during the summer before the outbreak of the war. In fact, through his enthusiasm for his work, the author found himself shut up in Paris in that memorable month of August when the Germans made their onslaught upon the Greatest Capital of Art the world has ever known.

The publishers have reduced the price of "THE LUXEMBOURG MUSEUM AND ITS TREASURES" to readers of this magazine from $8.00 to $5.50
